ADVERTISEMENTS.

EXTENSIVE SALE OF CHINA and GLASS.—JOHN ALLSUP (late Pellatt and Green), 16, St. Paul's Churchyard, begs to notify that having arranged for a renewal of the lease of his premises, he purposes making considerable alterations therein, and has determined on SELLING OFF the whole of his extensive and elegant STOCK OF CHINA, GLASS, and STAFFORDSHIRE WARE, which includes every variety of article, from the simplest to the most costly; and to effect an immediate clearance, the whole will be submitted at very reduced prices. Many articles considerably under the original cost.—16, St. Paul's Churchyard.

DAGUERRETYPE and TALBOTYPE PORTRAITS.—Royal Adelaide Gallery.—Mr. CLAUDET begs to recommend persons desirous of having their PORTRAITS taken to avail themselves of the present favourable season before the prevalence of fogs, during which photographic operations are less successful. Sun-shine is not, however, necessary, for portraits are always taken in the shade, where persons can better preserve a natural and pleasing expression; nevertheless the operation is almost instantaneous. The important improvements Mr. Claudet has introduced in the process are fully exemplified in his extensive collection of Daguerreotype and Talbotype Portraits, plain and coloured, of various sizes, produced by his patented improved apparatus, with which he has taken so successfully the likenesses of H.M. King Louis Philippe, H.M. Queen Dowager, H.G. the Duke of Wellington, and many eminent persons. The exhibition contains also the splendid specimens which have been lately submitted to Queen Victoria, and which have received Her Majesty's gracious approbation. Visitors are admitted free to the photographic department of the Adelaide Gallery by the house corner of Adelaide-street and King William-street, Strand; open from half-past nine until dusk. The early hours of the day are generally more favourable for the operation.

TO STATIONERS, PRINTERS, and others.—To be DISPOSED OF, by Mr. J. H. Page, the well-established TRADE of a Bookseller, Stationer, and Printer, desirably situate near Hyde Park-corner. The returns are good, the types well selected, and, with the presses, are in the best possible condition. The shop is fitted up in a superior style. About 1,000*l.* will be required, or can be reduced if needful. Apply to Mr. J. H. Page, auctioneer and valuer to the trade, 8, Pancras-lane, Queen-street, Cheapside.

TO STATIONERS.—WANTED, in a retail establishment at the west end of the town, a steady, experienced man, not under thirty years of age, of good address, and well acquainted with the business. Unexceptionable references and security will be required.—Apply by letter only (pre-paid) to T. T. to the care of Messrs. Hodgson, 9, Great Marybone-street.

WANTED, an APPRENTICE to the ornamental Writing and Plan Drawing Department of the LITHOGRAPHIC BUSINESS. Superior facilities are afforded for the full acquirement of this profitable trade under an experienced practical master. Also an Apprentice to the Press. Terms communicated in reply to letters addressed to M., 145, Aldersgate-street. To save trouble, it is requested of applicants to specify which branch is the object of inquiry.

TO MASTER PRINTERS.—A steady young man WANTS a SITUATION to work at the MUSIC TYPES, or at Press and Case. A reference can be given. No objection to the country. A new fount of pearl and nonpareil music types to be sold at a reduction from the original price. Apply by letter to Mr. Wallinger, 65, Great Leonard-street, Finsbury.

TO BOOKSELLERS and PRINTERS.—To be DISPOSED OF, a BOOKSELLING and PRINTING BUSINESS, possessing a highly respectable connection, and capable of considerable increase, situate in an improving market-town. Incoming between 500*l.* and 600*l.* Satisfactory reasons given for parting with the same.

Address to O. P. 1, Cross-street, Upper John-street, Hoxton.

TO PRINTERS.—WANTED, a good, steady COMPOSITOR, who has been accustomed to reading. Also Two Turnovers at Case. Situations permanent. Address, stating particulars, to A. D. 30, Greek-street, Soho.

"As a means of understanding the principle on which the great painters proceeded, in making their imitations of nature pleasing to the eye, this volume is highly useful. It explains the rationale of the art; enabling the uninitiated to perceive the meaning of pictorial effects, and thus to enjoy the beauty of colouring that appears at first sight inconsistent with nature. This Company, in addition to all the usual business of Assurance Companies, offers to the public a new system of Loans, more beneficial to the borrower, and yielding a better return to the Shareholder, than any system at present in use.

Thus any person effecting an assurance with this Company can borrow the full amount of the sum secured by his policy, upon giving collateral security for the payment of an increased rate of premium, fixed by the tables of the Company, according to the age of the person borrowing and the amount borrowed, and interest on the loan for a limited number of years only; which will, in effect, repay the money borrowed, and maintain a policy on the life of the borrower, and he will not, as in ordinary cases, be liable to be called upon to repay, in one sum, and by a given day, the principal money lent.

A reference to the Prospectuses of the Company (which have been already advertised at length in the papers), and which contain specimens of the Tables, will shew the mode by which the Company effects this object.

The Company will also advance money on Annuity, Mortgage, or other security.

Shareholders will receive a large remuneration in the shape of Bonus, arising from the operations of the Company, augmented by the profits on Premiums, paid in connection with Loans, in addition to interest upon their capital invested in shares; besides, by the mode of distribution proposed by the Company, the certainty, in addition to an increasing rate of interest, of a proportionate increase in the value of the capital, by the appropriation of a certain portion of the accumulated profits to the Capital Fund of the Company.

Prospectuses, containing specimens of the tables and every information, can be obtained from, and applications for shares, in the annexed form, made to, the Secretary, at the Company's offices, No. 5, St. James's-street, London; Messrs. Davies and Son, solicitors, 21, Warwick-street, Regent-street; Messrs. Tucker, Barnett, and Ellis, brokers, Change-alley, Cornhill, and John Eykyn, Esq., broker, Change-alley, Cornhill, London; Messrs. D. and J. B. A Liberal Commission allowed to Solicitors and Agents.CALIGRAPHIC BLACK LEAD PENCIL,

MANUFACTURED BY E. WOLFF AND SON,

No. 23, CHURCH-STREET, SPITALFIELDS, LONDON.

The Caligraphic Pencils have been invented by E. Wolf and Son, after the expenditure of much time and labour. They are the result of many experiments, and every effort that ingenuity and experience could suggest has been made to insure the highest degree of excellence, and the profession may rely upon their being all that can be desired.

They are perfectly free from grit; and for richness of tone, depth of colour, delicacy of tint, and evenness of texture, they are not to be equalled by the best Cumberland lead that can be obtained at the present time, and are infinitely superior to every other description of Pencil now in use.

The Caligraphic Pencils will also recommend themselves to all who use the Black Lead Pencil as an instrument of professional importance or recreation, by their being little more than half the price of other Pencils:—

H, HH, HHH, HB, B, BB, F, FF, W* 4s. per dozen.

BBB, EHB 8s. "

BBBB 12s. "

* This Pencil is particularly recommended for writing and counting-house use.

An allowance on every gross purchased by artists or teachers. May be had of all artists' colourmen, stationers, booksellers, &c. A single Pencil will be forwarded as a sample, upon the receipt of postage stamps to the amount.

These six versions are all placed in parallel columns, immediately beneath the inspired original, and it would be difficult to convey too strong an idea of the amount of instruction that may be gathered from comparing together, and with their source, these various streams from the fountain of truth.
